

BLUE RIDGE ELECTRIC MEMBERSHIP CORPORATION

Schedule Number: 9.2

Schedule MRM-Manually Read Meter
RIDER MRM-1

AVAILABILITY:

Applicable to residential and small general service members who request a meter that either does not utilize communicationsto transmit data, or is otherwise required to be read manually, provided that such a meter is available for use by the Cooperative.At the Cooperative's option, meters to be read manually may be either an advanced meter with the communication capability disabled or other non-communicating meter.

GENERAL PROVISIONS:

For residential service, the member must be served on a standard rate schedule (R, RE, RC).

For nonresidential service, the member must be served on Schedule GS without a demand meter, using less than 5,000 kilowatt hours per month and with an estimated demand of less than 25 kW.

Members choosing this option will not be eligible for any current or future services or offerings that require the use of an advanced or other communicating meter.

The Cooperative may refuse to provide service under this Rider under any of the following conditions:

- If the member has a history of metering tampering or unauthorized use of electricity at the current or any prior location.
- If such service creates a safety hazard to consumers on their premises, the public or the electric utility's personnel or facilities.
- If the member does not provide the Cooperative satisfactory access to its facilities for the purpose of obtaining meter readings or maintaining its equipment.

The Initial Set-up Fee and Monthly Rate shall be waived and not apply for members providing a notarized statement from a medical physician fully licensed by the North Carolina Medical Board stating that the member must avoid exposure to radio frequency emissions, to the extent possible, to protect their health. All such statements shall be retained in Cooperative records on a secure and confidential basis. The Cooperative will provide the member with a required medical release form, to identify general enrollment information, and a physician verification statement. At the physician's option, a comparable physician verification statement may be submitted.
