

Avery Bright Ideas Winners with Grant Descriptions:

Mark Parlier

SkillsUSA Student Leadership - Avery High School has the opportunity to attend SkillsUSA State Leadership conference. This is a pivotal time in SkillsUSA and the perfect way to jumpstart our chapter. Members will become energized about what SkillsUSA has to offer them. Students will learn management techniques, receive public speaking training, and develop teamwork strategies.

Kim Duncan

Building Dreams - In Building Productions Enrichment classes this year at AMS, upwards of 50 students will have the opportunity to design and produce elaborate sets for The AMS Panther Players productions. This will include building projects, light and projection projects, and artistic expression.

Shannon Silver

This is my Story, What's yours? - Our school is seeking to promote cultural sensitivity, independence, and our school theme—This is my story...what's yours?—through exploration of Mexican culture described in the works of Yuyi Morales along with integrated activities to foster a sense of community and learning among our students.

Robert Tufts

What's the weather? - Our school needs a weather station. We would like to purchase, install, and maintain a professional-quality weather station at our school that will serve the students at the school as well as the local community for many, many years to come in the future.
